

Prescription
Drug
Affordability
Candidate

Help spread the word about prescription drug affordability in Maryland!

Thank you for supporting prescription drug affordability. Below we've provided some sample tweets and a Facebook post about this campaign which we would love to disseminate widely. We appreciate your help!

General Graphics (Good on both Twitter and Facebook)

Source: Johns Hopkins Drug Access and Affordability Initiative

WE'RE ASKING: WHY DO
AMERICANS
PAY MORE
FOR THE SAME
PRESCRIPTION DRUGS?

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

Visit healthcareforall.com/knowbeforeyovote to learn if your candidates support prescription drug affordability.

Tweets

It's clear that drugs don't work if people can't afford them. That's why I'm supporting @HealthyMaryland's efforts to create a Prescription Drug Affordability Board #AffordableDrugsNOW <http://healthcareforall.com/KnowBeforeYouVote>

Prescription drug affordability is a critical issue, and I'm proud to stand with @HealthyMaryland and join over 130 candidates for state office choosing to do something about it. #AffordableDrugsNOW <http://healthcareforall.com/KnowBeforeYouVote>

One of the biggest issues facing Marylanders is #AffordableDrugs. That's why I'm proud to support the creation of a Prescription Drug Affordability Board. #AffordableDrugsNOW . <http://healthcareforall.com/KnowBeforeYouVote>

Care about health care and affordable prescription drugs? Learn why I'm standing up to support a @HealthyMaryland: <http://healthcareforall.com/KnowBeforeYouVote>

When drug corporations put advertising and profits before patients, it hurts everyone. It's time we do something about this very serious problem. #AffordableDrugsNOW <http://healthcareforall.com/KnowBeforeYouVote>

Why do Americans pay so much more for prescription drugs than almost every other industrialized country? Learn more about #AffordableDrugs and how we can make a difference in our state: <http://healthcareforall.com/KnowBeforeYouVote>

Did you know? Drug costs are skyrocketing, while many drug corporations spend billions more on advertising than they do on research. That's just wrong. Check out the Marylanders standing with me to do something about this crisis: <http://healthcareforall.com/KnowBeforeYouVote>

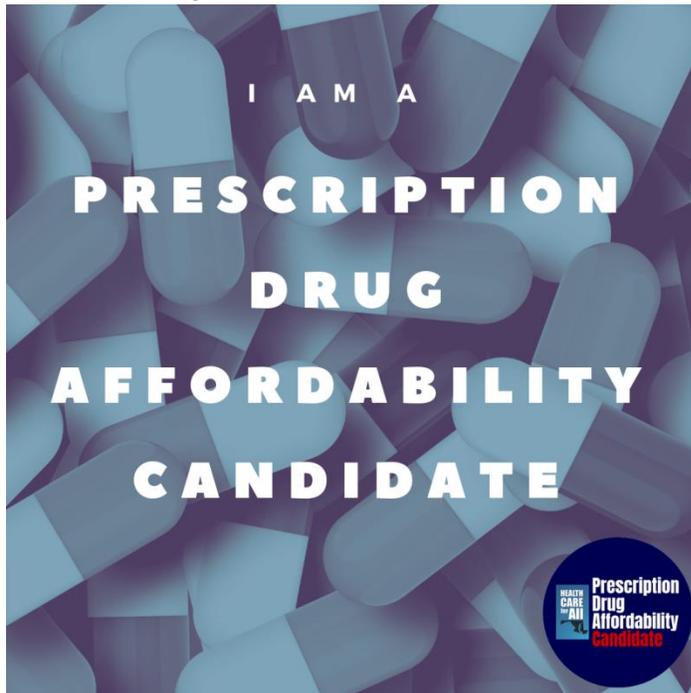

Twitter Banner

Facebook Post

Everyone deserves access to the care they need, and when the cost of prescription drugs skyrockets while corporations are making record profits, something needs to change. I'm proud to join over 130 candidates who are fighting for a healthier Maryland, because I know drugs don't work if people can't afford them. Read more about the affordability crisis gripping our healthcare system and how you can support the fight for change: <http://healthcareforall.com/KnowBeforeYouVote>

Facebook Graphics

Drug corporations spend billions more on advertising than they do on research and development.

That's just wrong.

healthcareforall.com/knowbeforeyovote

